

French Language Tour

New Caledonia

French Immersion Close to Home

This language and culture tour is specifically designed with a focus on gaining fluency and speaking confidence as well as an appreciation of the unique blend of French and Melanesian cultures of New Caledonia.

The tour is based in Nouméa, the capital of French territory New Caledonia, where students will be hosted in a beautiful beachside hotel and/or with host families. It includes a rich program of cultural and sightseeing activities including French lessons, city tours, museum visits and local attractions.

Language, Culture & Fun!

- French lessons to deepen your understanding of New Caledonia, and practice your French. French school is in Centre Ville
- Your opportunity to stay with a French family in twin-share homestay. All families are French nationals and fully vetted according to government child protection regulations
- Visit places of cultural and historic interest on the island including Nouméa, Port Moselle, the Tjibaou Cultural Center, and beautiful Amédée Island!
- Day trip to Mount Koghi with fantastic treetops zipline adventure
- Discover French Polynesian culinary specialties and all aspects of the colonial French and traditional Melanesian cultures.
- Visit to a French lycée for inter-cultural exchange (subject to confirmation).
